Jim Thompson House & Suan Pakkad Palace - Monday to Friday

Visit the home of Jim Thompson "The Father of Thai Silk" built in traditional teak wood style. Then proceed to Suan Pakkad Palace where a 300 year old lacquered pavilion decorated with gold leaf murals and fine wood carvings is situated.

This remarkable Thai style house is named after the man who created it from several exceptional examples of traditional Thai domestic architecture. Jim Thompson came to Thailand at the end of World War II. He became famous for reviving the Thai silk industry before disappearing under mysterious circumstances somewhere in Malaysia. Now a museum, Jim Thompson's Thai House contains connoisseur collections of Asian artifacts and antiques.

Private Tour : Itinerary is flexible. Pick up time and start time normally is fixed but can be flexible upon customer's convenience.

Price included : Pick up and drop off from Hotel in Bangkok city area, all admission fee as in the itinerary, English speaking
