Koh Kred & Nonthaburi Bike Ride

Begin ride to explore Pak Kret's agricultural villages on local road and take a boat trip along Lat Kred Canal heading to Koh Kred where we will ride on elevated pathway over Klongs to observe unique lifestyle of Mon Community and pottery workshops where products can be bought. Lunch at the local restaurant and then, transfer back to Bangkok through Chao Phraya river.

This carefully designed tour program is aiming to provide you with the best quality of tour operation Thailand has to offer. A 1-day cruising tour to Koh Kred, Nonthaburi is guaranteed to be a unique travel experience. We begin the day with a morning pickup at 8.00 am and transfer you on a smooth journey to Nonthaburi province, an outlying suburb of Bangkok. The first stop will be the busy and lively fresh fruit and vegetable market at the pier where you can sample and purchase delicious fresh produce at unbeatable prices. From there, you'll embark on an exciting boat ride along the legendary Chao Phraya River and Klong Lad Kred to watch the river life unfolded.

Be in for a treat as you visit a Thai village along Khanomwan canal to observe how the locals make traditional Thai sweets before continuing on to Koh Kred, a tiny island in the Chao Phraya River where the Mon people have lived for generations. A scrumptious Thai-style luncheon will be served at a local restaurant, after which you'll be entertained by the brisk atmosphere of the Mon village and its beautiful temples which are considered the community's centers for social life. Observe the masters of handmade pottery in action in the local workshops and shop around for memorable keepsake to conclude the trip before returning to Bangkok by road.
