Aurum The River Place Bangkok detail

Bangkok's riverside boutique hotel on the bank of the Chao Phraya River. Located in "Rattanakosin Island" the historical-cultural reserved area in the middle of Bangkok. Few minutes walk to the Reclining Buddha Temple (Wat Pho), Watpo Thai Traditional Massage School, and the Grand Palace. Whenever you decide to spend some precious moments in Bangkok, make sure that you get settled near the Chao Phraya River, the area where you are close to many of the city's great historical, magnificent structures with fascinating stories behind them. Tucked on "Rattanakosin Island" is "Aurum, The River Place" , a compact size boutique hotel on the bank of the river that is within a short walking distance to the Grand Palace, the Temple of the Emerald Buddha, the Reclining Buddha Temple (Wat Po) and a good number of impressive, interesting historical attractions that should not be missed. "Aurum, The River Place" is a four-storey European style edifice stylishly crafted as a modern, yet classic, luxurious hotel with 12 rooms only. It has all the conveniences and comforts you can expect. At "Vivi, The Coffee Place", guests will have the stunning view, on the opposite side of the river, of the "Temple of Dawn" or "Wat Arun ", one of the best-known landmarks of Bangkok, and the neighboring temple as well. Watching the river life passing by--passenger, long-tail boats, luxury tourist boats, barges laden with goods, will give you a relaxed feeling of the peaceful pace of the Thai river life.
